

The RESET Official Billing:

The RESET: An Immersive Sound Healing Experience with Davin Youngs

Description:

You've never experienced sound and music quite like this before.

At the captivating crossroads of wellness and music lies The RESET—an invitation to journey beyond the traditional concert experience, into a space of profound transformation and healing. Created and performed by renowned singer and sound healing artist, Davin Youngs, this immersive take on a “sound bath” will elevate your mind, body and spirit.

Davin masterfully weaves a tapestry of sound using improvisational singing, looping devices, crystal-singing bowls, tuning forks, and other overtone-emitting instruments. Layer upon improvised layer will guide you through a sonic landscape into the far reaches of your mind.

What sets The RESET apart is the integration of electronic beats, seamlessly intertwined with the emergence of music that mirrors the unique beauty of your inner world.

This experience will leave you with a refreshed perspective and feeling profound renewal.

100 word bio:

Singer and sound healing artist, Davin Youngs is a "true musical innovator" and "magician of the soul." who believes wholeheartedly in the transformational power of singing, voice and sound. His immersive sound healing experience, The RESET is his unique take on a "sound bath." He crafts each experience using improvisational singing, looping devices, sound healing instruments and electronic beats to create a sonic container for restoration, discovery and healing. He has brought The RESET to iconic spaces like The Kennedy Center's Concert Hall, Chicago's Orchestra Hall, Finney Chapel at the Oberlin Conservatory of Music and the roof of Ace Hotel.

300 word bio:

New York Times bestselling author of Eat Pray Love describes Davin Youngs as a "beautiful magician of the soul." The singer and sound healing artist has proved himself to be a true musical innovator who believes wholeheartedly in the transformational power of singing, voice and sound.

He is the creator of The RESET, an immersive sound healing experience that he has brought to iconic spaces and stages like The Kennedy Center's Concert Hall, Chicago's famed Orchestra Hall, Nashville's Schermerhorn Symphony Center, Finney Chapel at the Oberlin Conservatory of Music and the roof of Ace Hotel. This experience features Davin using improvisational singing through looping devices as well as overtone-emitting instruments to create a sonic container for restoration and healing. What makes this experience truly unique is the subtle integration of electronic beats and the emergence of improvised music that reflects the wonder and beauty of each person present.

Davin is a featured teacher on the Insight Timer meditation app where his extensive library of recorded meditations and immersive sound experiences are available for streaming. Additionally, Davin hosts the highly rated Free Your Voice, Free Your Life podcast and works with some of today's most influential singers, performers and leaders on finding more freedom, authenticity and ease with their voice.

In the lineage of Bobby McFerrin's circle songs, Davin has a passion and gift for leading others in improvisational singing. With this in mind, he created VOXUS, an experience that brings professional and corporate groups quickly and playfully into singing and spontaneous song. From Coca-Cola to Google to Chicago Public schools, Davin is one of today's most exciting voices in well-being, leadership and professional development. His innovative keynotes have been heard by groups ranging from corporate executives to community organizers and Presbyterian clergy.